

FIRE NEWS

It appears the fire on Paint Mountain seems to be under control. Amazing response by first responders including EFHG Fire. Aircraft came in almost immediately and reduced the flames from fire to smoke. While things seem to be under control, it doesn't hurt to be at the ready. It's going to be a long fire season.

We don't have all the details yet as the fire house is dealing with this as we speak . The fire is on paint mountain just below the Sanfords. Sheriffs deputies are going door to door asking neighbors in the area to leave. Stay tuned.

Firefighters have contained a brush fire in the Elfin Forest area near San Marcos to three acres.

The fire was reported at about 2:40 p.m. Sunday and briefly threatened three homes. Cal Fire says the fire's forward rate of spread has been stopped.

Crews will remain on scene to mop up hot spots.

There were no immediate reports of damage or injuries. There is no word on what caused the fire.
